Exhibit E

The proposed assignee, Global Broadcasting Network, is a widely held corporation. Only three stockholders have 5% or more of the stock. They are:

Kenta Rooks 880 W. 1st Street Los Angeles, CA 90012	5% stockholder
Hiroko Sagawa 880 W. 1st Street Los Angeles, CA 90012	5% stockholder
John Farquar 880 W. 1st Street Los Angeles CA 90012	5% stockholder

Kenta Rooks and John Farquar are United States citizens. Hiroko Sagawa is a Japanese citizen. Section 310(b)(3) of the Communications Act prohibits grant of a license to any corporation of which more than one-fifth of the capital stock is owned of record or voted by aliens or their representatives" 47 U.S.C. §310(b)(3). Insofar as she own only 5% of the corporation, that ownership is permissible.

The officers and Directors of Global Broadcast Network, Inc. are:

Kenta Rooks	President/Director
Hiroko Sagawa	Secretary/Director
John Farquar	Treasurer/Director

The Telecommunications Act of 1996 amended Section 403(k) of the Communications Act to allow foreign nationals to serve as officers and Directors of a corporation. That change was implemented by the Commission in Amendment of Parts 20, 21, 22, 24, 26, 80, 87, 90, 100, and 101 of the Commission's Rules to Implement Section 403(k) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, 11 FCC Rcd 13072 (1996). Therefore, Hiroko Sagawa's position as an officer and director of Global Broadcast Network, Inc. is permissible.
