

Exhibit F - Public Interest Statement

Assignee is a new and growing information and entertainment service that provides valuable services to unserved and underserved areas in rural communities. Assignee provides a wide range of program choices on topics on a variety of economic, social and cultural topics of interest to agricultural and farming communities in our Nation. The assignment if approved will facilitate the development, production and distribution of valuable news, entertainment, information and other material to viewers in underserved areas of the United States.