Re: Telesat Canada;
Amendment to Application for Assignment of Earth Station License E100110;
FCC File No. SES-ASG-20130502-00358

Dear Madame Secretary:

On May 2, 2013, Telesat Canada ("Telesat") filed the above-referenced application seeking consent to the assignment of its earth station license E100110 to Arctec Alaska JV ("Arctec"). By this correspondence, the parties seek to amend the subject application and to supplement the file record as described below.

(1) Amendment to change the response to Question A20

An error was made in responding to Question A20 of the Form 312. The answer to the question should have been "yes," not "no." Accordingly, the parties are hereby changing the response to Question A20 and providing below the related ownership information that such a response to the question requires for the assignee.

(2) Ownership information relating to Arctec and its affiliates

Assignee hereby supplements the above-referenced application to provide ownership information relating to it and its affiliates.

Assignee is a joint venture between Primus Solutions Inc. ("Primus"), which holds 51% ownership, and ATCO Structures & Logistics Ltd. ("ATCO"), which holds 49% ownership.

Primus is a corporation formed in the United States and is itself a wholly-owned subsidiary of ASRC Federal Holding Company ("ASRC Federal"). ASRC Federal is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Arctic Slope Regional Corporation ("ASRC"). ASRC is a private, Alaska-native corporation formed in the United States and is owned by approximately 11,000 Inupiat Eskimo shareholders, of whom no single shareholder has a 10% or greater ownership interest.

The administrative ASRC headquarters are located at the following address:

3900 C Street
Suite 801
Anchorage, AK 99503-5963
Phone: 907-339-6000

The primary business of ASRC is the provision of U.S. government services (logistics, facilities management, and operations and maintenance) related to petroleum refining, construction, and energy activities.

ATCO is a Canadian corporation, which itself is a wholly-owned subsidiary of ATCO Group. Alberta-based ATCO Group is a Canadian corporation and is a publicly-traded company on the Toronto Stock Exchange. No single shareholder has a 10% or greater ownership interest.

The ATCO headquarters are located at the following address:

1400, 909 - 11th Avenue S.W.
Calgary, Alberta T2R 1N6
Canada
Phone: (403) 292-7500

The primary business interests of ATCO include utilities, energy, emerging technologies, and logistics.

Respectfully submitted,
