Ownership Information

Antioch College Corporation (“Antioch”) is a non- stock, not for profit corporation chartered in Ohio as a Section 501(c)(3) organization, the tax exempt status of which has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service.

Formation and History

Antioch is the successor in interest to the educational institution at Yellow Springs, Ohio, which was founded in 1852 by the current licensee, Antioch University (which was originally known as Antioch College). Antioch will succeed the university as the operator of Earth Station E060293. The earth station is used in conjunction with the operation of Noncommercial Educational FM Broadcast Station WYSO, to deliver programming for broadcast to the public from such program suppliers as National Public Radio and Public Radio International. Antioch will continue the program service that the university has delivered to the Yellow Springs community and throughout the station’s service area since WYSO first began broadcasting more than 50 years ago.

Board of Trustees

Antioch is governed by a 15-member board of trustees. The attached table identifies the trustees, the president, and the chief operating officer, by name and address, citizenship, positional interest, and percentage of votes. It is excerpted from FCC Form 314, the application for Commission consent to assignment of the broadcast license for WYSO, in FCC File No. BALED-20130520ADN.
