

Exhibit E

The proposed assignee of the Station is WHTM Acquisition LLC, which has been formed to hold the licenses and assets associated with WHTM(TV), Harrisburg, Pennsylvania as an Exchange Accomodation Titleholder (“EAT”) in connection with a proposed reverse like-kind exchange pursuant to Section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and Revenue Procedure 2000-37, 2002-2 C.B. 308.¹ WHTM Acquisition LLC has two members: Media General Operations, Inc. and REVAC, Inc.

Media General Operations, Inc., while required for tax purposes to be a non-equity member of WHTM Acquisition LLC, will have exclusive control of the Station pursuant to the LLC formation documents and related agreements. Media General Operations, Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of Media General Communications, Inc. Media General Communications, Inc., in turn, is a wholly owned subsidiary of Media General, Inc. The attributable shareholder of Media General, Inc., through intervening entities, is Soohyung Kim.

REVAC, Inc. is 100% owned by TVPX 1031 Exchange Co., which in turn is owned by Tobias Kleitman, Robert Valleau, and Mark McCarthy. These three individuals, along with Chris Daly and Jeffery Towers are the officers and/or directors of TVPX 1031.

¹ As the Commission is aware, in like-kind exchanges, a buyer essentially exchanges one property for another property of similar type and use, and the tax laws provide for special tax treatment of the exchange.
