

Ownership (Response to Question A20)

The proposed assignee, CBS Communications Services Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of ViacomCBS Inc. (“ViacomCBS”). ViacomCBS has two classes of common stock: Class A voting shares and Class B non-voting shares, the latter of which are publicly traded under the symbol VIAC (NASDAQ). ViacomCBS is directly controlled by National Amusements, Inc. (“NAI”), its single majority shareholder, which holds approximately 77.4% of the voting Class A stock and 9.7% of the company’s total equity (Class A stock and Class B stock combined).¹ NAI, in turn, is controlled by the Sumner M. Redstone National Amusements Part B General Trust (the “SMR Part B Trust”), which owns 80% of the voting interest of NAI and acts by majority vote of seven voting trustees with respect to the NAI shares it holds. The remaining Class A shares are held by the Shari Ellin Redstone Trust.

The charts provided on the following pages detail the current ownership information for each of the following entities: (A) National Amusements, Inc., (B) the SMR Part B Trust, and (C) the Shari Ellin Redstone Trust. The numbered items below refer to column numbers in the tables that follow:
