Felony Conviction

A. Felony Plea of Koch Industries Inc.

On September 19, 1980, Koch Industries, Inc., an entity that indirectly controls Flint Hills Resources, was sentenced to a $50,000 fine by the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado. The sentence was the result of Koch Industries' plea agreement resolving charges that it and other defendants had manipulated a lottery administered by the Federal Bureau of Land Management by submitting more applications for oil and gas leases than the rules permitted. Although the incident in question occurred more than 35 years ago, Koch Industries Inc. is making this disclosure out of an abundance of caution.

B. Felony Plea Agreement of Flint Hills Resources, LP

On April 9, 2001, Flint Hills Resources, LP was sentenced to a fine, a community service payment and a term of five years probation by the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Corpus Christi Division. The sentence was the result of Flint Hills Resources, LP's plea agreement for one felony violation for false statements in connection with the failure to measure levels of a regulated chemical after a control device had been disconnected. The conduct for which the Company was sentenced occurred in 1995.
