Description of Pro Forma Assignment Application

The instant Form 312 application seeks authority for the pro forma assignment of the earth station license E970099 from WKOW License, LLC (“WKOW”) to commonly-owned KBJR License, LLC (“KBJR”).

One hundred percent of the ownership interests in WKOW are held by WKOW Television, Inc., and one hundred percent of the shares of WKOW Television, Inc. are held by Quincy Media, Inc. (“QMI”). Similarly, one hundred percent of the ownership interests in KBJR are held by KBJR Television, Inc., and one hundred percent of the shares of KBJR Television, Inc. are held by QMI. Thus, the ultimate parent company in terms of both equity and control of both WKOW and KBJR is QMI.

The only 10% or greater attributable parties in QMI are as follows:

Name	Positional Interest	% of Votes
Lee Lindsay Curtis Grantor Irrevocable Trust ¹ (the “Trust”)	Shareholder of 26.4% of QMI	26.4% votes in QMI
Erin Clayton	Co-Trustee of the Trust	50% votes of the Trust
Grant Weyman	Co-Trustee of the Trust	50% votes of the Trust

More granular ownership information about QMI and assignee KBJR is available in the Media Bureau ownership reports that were filed on August 31, 2018, in LMS File Nos. 0000059325 (KBJR License, LLC); 0000059326 (KBJR Television, Inc.); 0000059329 (Quincy Media, Inc.); 0000059331 (Lee Lindsay Curtis Grantor Irrevocable Trust); and 0000059330 (Lindsay Trust, which holds less than a 10 percent interest in QMI, the assignor, and the assignee). Material information provided in those Media Bureau ownership reports remains current as of the filing date of this pro forma assignment application.

¹ Lee Lindsay Curtis is now known as Lee Paige Lindsay. As of the date of this filing, however, the name of the Trust remains Lee Lindsay Curtis Grantor Irrevocable Trust.
