I. DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPOSED PRO FORMA ASSIGNMENT

A. Description of Transaction — Response to Question 43

The Commission recently granted the applications of AT&T Inc. ("AT&T") and TPG Capital ("TPG") to jointly own and manage DIRECTV Entertainment Holdings, LLC ("New DIRECTV"), which will offer direct-to-home satellite digital television services as well as other video programming services. Applications of AT&T Inc. (Transferor) and DIRECTV Entertainment Holdings LLC (Transferee) for Transfer of Control of DIRECTV Enterprises, LLC, Memorandum Opinion and Order, DA 21-838 (IB/WTB July 16, 2021). The transaction closed on July 31, 2021.

A post-closing internal reorganization is planned. A New DIRECTV subsidiary called DIRECTV Enterprises, LLC, which holds all of New DIRECTV's FCC licenses, including the sixty-nine (69) fixed satellite transmit/receive earth stations that are the subject of this application, will be merged into another New DIRECTV subsidiary called DIRECTV, LLC. Since both DIRECTV Enterprises, LLC and DIRECTV, LLC are indirect wholly owned subsidiaries of New DIRECTV, this transaction will not change the ultimate ownership or control of the authorizations. Accordingly, the assignment is pro forma in nature, see 47 C.F.R. § 63.24(d), and qualifies for grant one business day after filing, without prior public notice, see 47 C.F.R. § 25.119(i).
