

David D Freudenthal
Governor

Earl Kabeiseman
Director

Department of Administration and Information Information Technology Division

June 17, 2004

Mr. William Howden
Chief, Systems Analysis Branch
International Bureau
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

Subject: Surrender of earth station licenses

Reference 1: E-mail, Norman Weinhouse to William Howden 4/7/04
2: E-mail, William Howden to Norman Weinhouse 4/19/04

Dear Mr. Howden,

The State of Wyoming wants to surrender licenses for 16 "Temporary Fixed Earth Stations". These stations have been replaced in favor of a more modern network that better serves the schools in Wyoming.

The file numbers and call signs of the station are as follows:

1. SES-LIC-1990059-00817, E990196
2. 00820, E990197
3. 00821, E990198
4. 00823, E990199
5. 00830, E990200
6. 00833, E990201
7. 00837, E990202
8. 00840, E990203
9. 00844, E990205
10. 00846, E990206
11. 00848, E990207
12. 00849, E990208
13. 00850, E990209
14. 00852, E990210
15. 00853, E990211
16. 00859, E990212

Respectfully Yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Tom Engbretson".

Tom Engbretson, Telecom Manager
Department of Administration
State of Wyoming