Hi Towanda.

The manufacturer tells us that the Satellite Arc East should be 74 West (and not 74 East; I believe the application specified 74 East). Taking that into account, the following parameters should be correct (according to the manufacturer's engineer):

The East Elev Angle should be 44.4 degrees
West Elev Angle should be 20 degrees
East Azim Angle should be 175.9 degrees true
West Azim Angle should be 244.0 degrees true.

If these parameters will work, please let me know if I need to file an amendment.

Thanks very much for your help!!
