

Hub Station

E900887

The hub station is earth station E900887, which has been licensed for many years and whose technical parameters will not change. For these reasons, neither a radiation hazard study nor an FCC statement is being submitted for the hub.