

Explanation of Response to Question E18

Frequency coordination is not required in connection with the instant application, which involves only MSS operations in the L Band.