12. Description

IWL Communications requests a Special Temporary Authority to permit earth station operations on the Vioska Knoll 826 (Neptune) oil platform to provide digital voice and data services to oil platform personnel. The original system was damaged by Hurricane Rita, and the earth station will be a portion of the rebuilt system. A STA is requested to allow IWL Communications to bring the earth station on-line as a portion of the restored communications system. This system will be the only means of communications at the platform.
