12. Description

American Family Association is requesting a 60 day STA to allow satellite operations during a critical time of year for this non-commercial/educational Christian broadcaster. With the Christmas season and other significant time of year events, American Family Association is in real need to distribute it's unique Christian educational programs to many radio stations thru out the US. We ask for a 60 day STA to allow the satellite operations while the existing application is working it's way thru the Commission. American Family Association is operating under a critical time of year event with thier unique programming, and therefore request this 60 day STA.
