

ERRATUM

(FCC File No. SES-STA-20120517-00450)

Telesat Network Services, Inc. ("Telesat") hereby updates its above-referenced application for Special Temporary Authority, in order to correct the references to the "SeaTel SE-125" antenna in its Narrative. The antenna is manufactured by Azimuth; accordingly all references to the antenna should read "Azimuth SE-125," consistent with the information provided in Telesat's underlying application for modification to its KA-399 authorization (File No. SES-MOD-20120308-00248).
