

This temporary authorization is necessary due to the expiration of the previous broadcast license (SES-LIC-20070108-00032) and this terminal will be used for broadcasting data, video, and voice traffic critical to the US Government's national defense capabilities. Any service interruptions to this Earth Station would have catastrophic results and severely impact the Govts ability to conduct real world missions."