Description of Transfer of Control

Miami Valley Broadcasting Corporation (“MVBC”), licensee of WHIO-TV, Dayton, Ohio, and its associated receive-only earth station E3767, hereby notifies Commission of the consummation of an internal corporate reorganization transferring control of MVBC from Cox Newspapers, Inc. to Cox Media Group, Inc. (f/k/a Cox Broadcasting, Inc.). This qualifies as a pro forma transfer of control because Cox Enterprises, Inc. (“CEI”) has and will retain ultimate ownership and control of MVBC and E3767.

On December 30, 2009, CEI completed an internal reorganization of numerous wholly-owned subsidiaries involved principally in non-broadcast activities. As indicated on the following chart, the portion of the internal reorganization affecting MVBC resulted in the substitution of wholly-owned intermediate entities in the chain of ownership between MVBC and CEI. None of the officers or directors of MVBC or any of its parent entities have changed as a result of this pro forma transfer.

* As part of the reorganization, Cox Newspapers, Inc. was converted to a limited liability company.
