Karl –

Per your request, I am writing to clarify the meaning of footnote 1 of the attachment to the above-referenced application, which seeks Commission consent to the pro forma transfer of control of various earth station licenses held by Global Crossing Americas Solutions (“GCAS”). That footnote states that the ownership figures set forth in the attachment – which pertain to the pro forma transferee, ALC Communications Corp. (“ALC”) – “are accurate as of May 2010.” To clarify, the description of ALC’s ownership structure set forth in the application remains correct in all material respects; no other entities with a 10 percent or greater ownership interest have entered or been removed from that ownership chain. The footnote in question was intended only to refer to the possibility of minor, insignificant changes in the specific ownership interests of STT Crossing Ltd. and Fidelity Management & Research Co. in Global Crossing Limited (an indirect parent company of both GCAS and ALC) since May 2010, when GCAS last compiled the pertinent information.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions or if I can be of further assistance.

Regards,

Brian W. Murray
