Re: SES-T/C-20110225-00219 (Starz Entertainment, LLC) -
Request to Extend Consummation Period

Dear Ms. Dortch:

The above-referenced pro forma transfer of control application was filed in connection with the split-off of the Liberty Capital and Liberty Starz tracking group stocks from Liberty Media Corporation ("Liberty Media"). The International Bureau granted this pro forma transfer of control application on April 21, 2011.

Although Liberty Media's shareholders approved the split-off transaction at a shareholder meeting held on May 23, 2011, because of certain pending litigation in Delaware, Liberty Media anticipated that it would not consummate the split-off transaction until late summer 2011. Consequently, by letter dated June 17, 2011, Liberty Media respectfully requested a 60 day extension of the consummation period until August 19, 2011. The International Bureau granted the requested extension (copy attached as Exhibit 1).

Although Liberty Media received a favorable ruling earlier this year in the Delaware litigation, an appeal of that ruling subsequently was filed. Liberty Media has requested expedited consideration of that appeal, and a hearing has been set for mid-September. Liberty Media therefore respectfully requests a further 60 day extension of the consummation period until October 18, 2011.
