Response to Questions 33-34

Nextel Communications of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. (“Nextel Communications”) is not currently indirectly controlled by any other corporation of which more than one-fourth of the capital stock is owned of record or voted by aliens, their representatives, or by a foreign government or representative thereof or by any corporation organized under the laws of a foreign country. Once the instant transfer of control is complete, however, SOFTBANK CORP., a Japanese stock company, indirectly will hold foreign ownership and voting rights in Nextel Communications in excess of the 25-percent foreign ownership benchmark in Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended. As part of the overall transaction, a Petition for Declaratory Ruling is being filed that seeks approval of the proposed indirect foreign ownership.¹ The answers requested by Question 34 are contained in that Petition for Declaratory Ruling and are incorporated herein by reference.

¹ See Petition for Declaratory Ruling, IBFS File No. ISP-PDR-20121115-00007 (Nov. 15, 2012), appended as Attachment 5 to the Public Interest Statement that is attached as Exhibit F to this application.
