<sup>1</sup> Based on SoftBank’s most recent share register, no single person or entity other than Mr. Son currently owns more than 10 percent of SoftBank’s shares. A recent public securities filing in Japan analogous to the Form 13D of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, however, indicates that each of four entities affiliated with The Capital Group Companies, Inc. (“Capital Group”) beneficially own interests in SoftBank that are below 10 percent but that aggregate to 10.04 percent of SoftBank’s stock. Capital Group is an investment management company headquartered in Los Angeles, California. The above-described informational filing states that these Capital Group affiliates hold SoftBank stock as follows: Capital Research and Management Company (8.34 percent); Capital Guardian Trust Company (1.39 percent); Capital International Limited (0.16 percent); and Capital International Inc. (0.14 percent). Each of these entities reported its address as in Los Angeles, California except for Capital International Limited, which reported an address in London, U.K. The Capital Group Companies, Inc., is a private United States investment management company originally founded in Los Angeles, California, in 1931 as Capital Research and Management Company. Each of the above-described Capital Group affiliates is an investment manager. Capital Research and Management Company is known particularly for its management of American Funds, a family of 33 mutual funds. (All information on the Capital Group has been taken from public sources reasonably considered to be reliable.)
