Form 312 Transfer of Control Exhibit E

Response to Transferee Question #A20

This application seeks Commission approval for a probate court-ordered transfer of control of the Scripps Media, Inc. satellite authorizations that was necessitated by termination of The Edward W. Scripps Trust (the "Trust"). The Trust owned 89.6% of the outstanding Common Voting Shares of The E.W. Scripps Company (the "Company") as of October 31, 2012. The Company, in turn, is the 100% parent of the licensee, Scripps Media, Inc. The Trust terminated by its terms upon the death of Robert P. Scripps, Jr., the last measuring life of the Trust, on October 18, 2012.

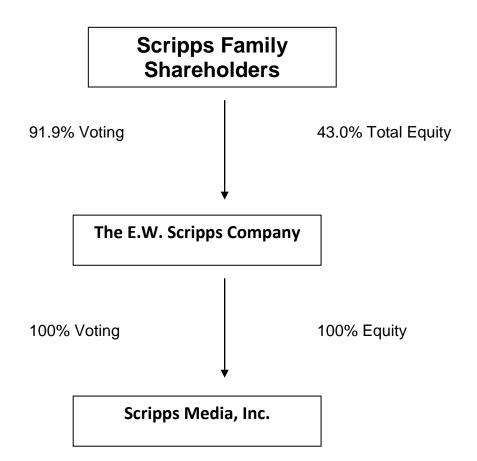

After the death of Robert P. Scripps, the Trust's three trustees continued as record holder of the Trust's Common Voting Shares. On January 22, 2013, the Court of Common Pleas, Probate Division, Butler County, Ohio (the "Probate Court") entered an order (the "Order") directing distribution of the Trust's shares to its beneficiaries as soon as practicable and immediately limiting the voting authority of the Trustees with respect to the Common Voting Shares pending their distribution. The parties to the court proceeding are bound by a protective order issued by the Probate Court that seals pleadings and orders and limits disclosure with respect to the proceedings, but the Order's applicable terms are fully described in a Schedule 13D that the Company filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 24, 2013. (Copy attached as Exhibit E.1.)

The Schedule 13D also describes a voting agreement among certain of the Trust's beneficiaries and other descendants of Edward W. Scripps (together the "Scripps Family Shareholders"). In addition to enjoying certain voting rights set by the Order as of January 22, the Scripps Family Shareholders, upon distribution of the Trust's Common Voting Shares to the beneficiaries, will control approximately 91.9% of the Common Voting Shares and 43.0% of the Company's total equity. However, none of the Scripps Family Shareholders will have a direct or beneficial interest in Common Voting Shares that would constitute 10% or more of the Common Voting Shares controlled under the Agreement (nor 10% or more of the total voting stock in the Company). While they are thus not parties to this application due to their small individual interests, it is noted that all the Scripps Family Shareholders are U.S. citizens or trusts and have a business address at 334 Beechwood Road, Suite 400, Ft. Mitchell, Kentucky 41017.

¹There are two types of Company stock (together, the "Common Shares"). The Common Voting Shares are convertible into Class A Common Shares on a share-for-share basis. The Class A Common Shares are publicly traded and listed on the New York Stock Exchange and are entitled to elect the greater of three or one-third of the Company's board of directors, but are not permitted to vote on any other matters except as required by Ohio law. The Common Voting Shares are not publicly traded and are entitled to elect the balance of the Company's board of directors and to vote on all matters coming before the Company's shareholders. Accordingly, the holders of a majority of the Common Voting Shares control the Company.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 2 to Schedule 13D (this "Amendment") amends and restates in its entirety the Schedule 13D filed on October 26, 1992 and amended by Amendment No. 1 dated October 22, 1993 (the "Original Schedule 13D" and, together with this Amendment, this "Schedule 13D") relating to the Class A Common Shares, $.01 par value per share (the "Class A Common Shares"), and Common Voting Shares, $.01 par value per share (the "Common Voting Shares," and, together with the Class A Common Shares, the "Common Shares"), of The E.W. Scripps Company (the "Issuer").

This Amendment is being filed to, among other things, (a) describe certain terms of the order (the "Order") entered by the Court of Common Pleas, Probate Division, Butler County, Ohio (the "Court") on January 22, 2013 directing the Trustees (the "Trustees") of The Edward W. Scripps Trust (the "Trust") to vote the Common Voting Shares of the Issuer held by the Trust as instructed by a vote conducted under the Scripps Family Agreement (as defined below), (b) add additional signatories to the Scripps Family Agreement as filing persons of the Schedule 13D (together with the persons filing the Original Schedule 13D, the "Reporting Persons"), and (c) update the information regarding the beneficial ownership of the Common Shares and other matters regarding the Reporting Persons.

Item 1. Security and Issuer.

This Schedule 13D relates to the Class A Common Shares and Common Voting Shares of the Issuer.

The Common Voting Shares are convertible into Class A Common Shares on a share-for-share basis. The Class A Common Shares are publicly traded and listed on the New York Stock Exchange and are entitled to elect the greater of three or one-third of the Issuer's board of directors, but are not permitted to vote on any other matters except as required by Ohio law. The Common Voting Shares are not publicly traded and are entitled to elect the balance of the Issuer's board of directors and to vote on all matters coming before the Issuer's shareholders.

The principal executive offices of the Issuer are located at 312 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202.

Item 2. Identity and Background.

The Reporting Persons are named on Appendix A hereto and consist of (a) certain descendants of Robert P. Scripps, (b) descendants of John P. Scripps (the "JPS Descendants") and (c) certain trusts of which JPS Descendants are trustees and beneficiaries (collectively, the "JPS Trusts"). Robert P. Scripps was a son of the founder of the Issuer. John P. Scripps was a grandson of the founder and a nephew of Robert P. Scripps. All of the Reporting Persons are parties to the Scripps Family Agreement, which is described in more detail in Item 6. Certain of the Reporting Persons are residuary beneficiaries (the "Trust Beneficiaries") of the Trust, which held 13,064,074 Class A Common Shares and 10,693,333 Common Voting Shares as of January 22, 2013.

The Trust terminated on the death of Robert P. Scripps, Jr. on October 18, 2012 and the Common Shares held by the Trust will be distributed to the Trust Beneficiaries pursuant to the terms of the Trust for no consideration as soon as administratively practicable. The Reporting Persons expect the Common Shares to be distributed to the Trust Beneficiaries in the next few months.

With respect to each Reporting Person who is an individual, Appendix A sets forth that person's (a) name, (b) residence or business address, and (c) present principal occupation or employment and the name, principal business and address of any corporation or other organization in which such employment is conducted. Each Reporting Person who is an individual is a citizen of the United States.

With respect to each Reporting Person that is an entity, Appendix A sets forth that entity's (a) name, (b) state or other place of organization, (c) principal business, and (d) the address of its principal business.

During the past five years, none of the Reporting Persons (a) has been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors), or (b) was a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds and Other Consideration.

In 1922, Edward W. Scripps established the Trust, among other reasons, to hold the controlling interest in the capital stock of the Issuer for the benefit of certain of his descendants. The Trust terminated on October 18, 2012 in accordance with its terms upon the death of the last to survive of four children of Robert P. Scripps who were living at the death of Edward W. Scripps in 1926. Substantially all of the Trust's assets will be distributed to the Trust Beneficiaries pursuant to the terms of the Trust for no consideration.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Edward W. Scripps believed that the Issuer was an institution impressed with a public interest because of its engagement in the publishing of daily newspapers and that the exercise of control over the Issuer carried a responsibility to maintain the independence and integrity of its newspapers. To this end, he established the Trust in 1922, among other reasons, to hold the controlling interest in the capital stock of the Issuer.

The Reporting Persons entered into the Scripps Family Agreement, convinced of the wisdom and farsightedness of Edward W. Scripps' views and believing that it would be in the best interests of the Issuer, its shareholders, its employees and the public for the Reporting Persons to take steps to preserve the independence and integrity of the Issuer by restricting the transfer and governing the voting of Common Voting Shares distributed to such Reporting Persons following the termination of the Trust.

The Trust terminated on October 18, 2012, and the Reporting Persons expect the Common Shares to be distributed to the Trust Beneficiaries in the next few months.

As termination of the Trust approached, the Trustees anticipated that there could be a significant delay between such termination and the distribution of the Common Shares to the Trust Beneficiaries. Accordingly, on June 15, 2011, the Trustees filed a petition with the Court that sought, among other things, (a) to prepare for the administration of the Trust following its eventual termination, (b) to confirm the Trustees' authority to continue the investment and management of the Trust's assets during the period between Trust termination and final distribution of assets (the "Winding-up Period"), and (c) to authorize the Trustees to vote the Common Voting Shares during the Winding-up Period substantially in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Scripps Family Agreement. The petition was filed under seal in accordance with Ohio court rules and pursuant to the Court's order, and the parties to the action are bound by a protective order issued by the Court that limits disclosure with respect to the proceedings.

The Court issued the Order on January 22, 2013 under the provisions of its prior order sealing the proceedings. With the Court's authorization, the Trustees have advised the Issuer that the Order generally provides that during the Winding-up Period the Trustees shall vote (or enter into or decline to enter into binding agreements to vote) the Common Voting Shares held by the Trust as instructed by a vote conducted in accordance with the procedures of Section 9 of the Scripps Family Agreement. In the absence of instructions from a vote under the Scripps Family Agreement and the Order, the Trustees may vote the Common Voting Shares in the manner they determine, in their discretion, to be in the best interests of the Trust Beneficiaries, so long as the vote does not relate to a change of control transaction. If the vote relates to a change of control transaction, the Trustees will not vote the Common Voting Shares held by the Trust in the absence of such instructions.

After the Common Voting Shares are distributed from the Trust, the provisions of the Scripps Family Agreement will fully govern the transfer and voting of the Common Voting Shares held by the Reporting Persons, and the terms of the Order will cease to apply. The matters set forth in Item 6 are incorporated into this Item 4 by reference as if fully set forth herein.

Except as otherwise described in this Schedule 13D, the Reporting Persons do not have any plans or proposals which relate to or would result in any of the events or matters described in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 to Schedule 13D. The Reporting Persons reserve the right to formulate plans and/or make proposals, and take such actions with respect to their investment in the Issuer, including any or all of the actions set forth in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

- (a) Appendix B hereto sets forth (i) the number of Common Voting Shares and Class A Common Shares beneficially owned by each Reporting Person (excluding Common Shares held by the Trust), (ii) the aggregate number of Common Voting Shares and Class A Common Shares that may be deemed to be beneficially owned by each Reporting Person, and (iii) the percentage of the number of outstanding Common Voting Shares and Class A Common Shares that may be deemed to be beneficially owned by each Reporting Person.
- (b) Except as provided in the Scripps Family Agreement and the Order or as set forth on Appendix B, each Reporting Person has the sole power to dispose or direct the disposition of all Class A Common Shares and Common Voting Shares that such Reporting Person beneficially owned as of January 22, 2013.

The Reporting Persons share voting power with respect to the Common Voting Shares with each other and the Trustees, because the Order requires the Trustees to follow the voting directions provided by the Reporting Persons under the Scripps Family Agreement in voting the Common Voting Shares held by the Trust.

The Trustees of the Trust are John H. Burlingame, Mary McCabe Peirce and Nackey E. Scagliotti. Ms. Peirce and Ms. Scagliotti are each a director and Mr. Burlingame is a former director of the Issuer and each has a business address c/o the Trust at 13350 Metro Parkway, Suite 301, Fort Myers, Florida 33966. During the past five years, no Trustee (a) has been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (b) was a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws. The affirmative vote of a majority of the Trustees is required to determine how the Class A Common Shares or the Common Voting Shares held by the Trust will be voted or whether to dispose of any such shares. Each trustee disclaims "beneficial ownership" of the shares held by the Trust, as such term is defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

- (c) Except as described herein and on Appendix C, none of the Reporting Persons has effected any transactions in the Class A Common Shares or Common Voting Shares in the past 60 days.
 - (d) Inapplicable.
 - (e) Inapplicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

Order of the Court

As termination of the Trust approached, the Trustees anticipated that there could be a significant delay between such termination and the distribution of the Common Shares to the Trust Beneficiaries. Accordingly, on June 15, 2011, the Trustees filed a petition with the Court that sought, among other things, (a) to prepare for the administration of the Trust following its eventual termination, (b) to confirm the Trustees' authority to continue the investment and management of the Trust's assets during the Winding-up Period, and (c) to authorize the Trustees to vote the Common Voting Shares during the Winding-up Period substantially in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Scripps Family Agreement. The petition was filed under seal in accordance with Ohio court rules and pursuant to the Court's order, and the parties to the action are bound by a protective order issued by the Court that limits disclosure with respect to the proceedings.

The Court issued the Order on January 22, 2013 under the provisions of its prior order sealing the proceedings. With the Court's authorization, the Trustees have advised the Issuer that the Order generally provides that during the Winding-up Period the Trustees shall vote (or enter into or decline to enter into binding agreements to vote) the Common Voting Shares held by the Trust as instructed by a vote conducted in accordance with the procedures of Section 9 of the Scripps Family Agreement. In the absence of instructions from a vote under the Scripps Family Agreement and the Order, the Trustees may vote the Common Voting Shares in the manner they determine, in their discretion, to be in the best interests of the Trust Beneficiaries, so long as the vote does not relate to a change of control transaction. If the vote relates to a change of control transaction, the Trustees will not vote the Common Voting Shares held by the Trust in the absence of such instructions.

After the Common Voting Shares are distributed from the Trust, the provisions of the Scripps Family Agreement will fully govern the transfer and voting of the Common Voting Shares held by the Reporting Persons, and the terms of the Order will cease to apply.

Scripps Family Agreement

General. The Issuer and the Reporting Persons entered into the Scripps Family Agreement dated October 15, 1992 (the "Scripps Family Agreement") to restrict the transfer and govern the voting of Common Voting Shares that the Reporting Persons may acquire or own after the termination of the Trust.

If the Common Shares held by the Trust had been distributed as of January 22, 2013, the Reporting Persons would have held in the aggregate approximately 93.3% of the outstanding Common Voting Shares as of such date.

The provisions of the Scripps Family Agreement that restrict transfer and govern voting of Common Voting Shares will become subject to implementation when the Common Voting Shares held by the Trust are distributed to the Trust Beneficiaries. However, due to the hiatus between the termination of the Trust and the distribution of its assets, the voting provisions established by the Order will apply during the time between termination and distribution of the Common Voting Shares to the Trust Beneficiaries.

The provisions restricting transfer of Common Voting Shares under the Scripps Family Agreement will continue until 21 years after the death of the last survivor of the descendants of Robert P. Scripps and John P. Scripps alive when the Trust terminated. The provisions of the Scripps Family Agreement governing the voting of Common Voting Shares will be effective for a 10-year period after termination of the Trust and may be renewed for additional 10-year periods.

Transfer Restrictions. The Scripps Family Agreement provides that no Reporting Person may dispose of any Common Voting Shares (except as otherwise summarized below) without first giving other Reporting Persons and the Issuer the opportunity to purchase such shares. The Reporting Persons will not be able to convert Common Voting Shares into Class A Common Shares except for a limited period of time after giving other Reporting Persons and the Issuer the aforesaid opportunity to purchase and except in certain other limited circumstances.

The Reporting Persons are permitted to transfer Common Voting Shares to their lineal descendants or trusts for the benefit of such descendants, or to any trust for the benefit of such descendant, or to any trust for the benefit of the spouse of such descendant or any other person or entity. Descendants to whom such shares are sold or transferred outright, and trustees of trusts into which such shares are transferred, must become parties to the Scripps Family Agreement or such shares shall be deemed to be offered for sale pursuant to the Scripps Family Agreement. The Reporting Persons are also permitted to transfer Common Voting Shares by testamentary transfer to their spouses provided such shares are converted to Class A Common Shares and to pledge such shares as collateral security provided that the pledgee agrees to be bound by the terms of the Scripps Family Agreement. If title to any such shares subject to any trust is transferred to anyone other than a descendant of Robert Paine Scripps or John P. Scripps acquires outright any such shares held in trust but is not or does not become a party to the Scripps Family Agreement, such shares shall be deemed to be offered for sale pursuant to the Scripps Family Agreement. Any valid transfer of Common Voting Shares made by the Reporting Persons without compliance with the Scripps Family Agreement will result in automatic conversion of such shares to Class A Common Shares.

Voting Provisions. The Scripps Family Agreement provides that the Issuer will call a meeting of the Reporting Persons prior to each annual or special meeting of the shareholders of the Issuer held after termination of the Trust (each such meeting hereinafter referred to as a "Required Meeting"). At each Required Meeting, the Issuer will submit for decision by the Reporting Persons, each matter, including election of directors, that the Issuer will submit to the holders of its Common Voting Shares at the annual meeting or special meeting with respect to which the Required Meeting has been called. Each Reporting Person will be entitled, either in person or by proxy, to cast one vote for each Common Voting Share owned of record or beneficially by him or her on each matter brought before the Required Meeting. Each Reporting Person will be bound by the decision reached by majority vote with respect to each matter brought before the Required Meeting, and at the related annual or special meeting of the shareholders of the Issuer each Reporting Person will vote his Common Voting Shares in accordance with decisions reached at the Required Meeting of the Reporting Persons.

John P. Scripps Newspapers Shareholder Agreement

In connection with the merger in 1986 of the John P. Scripps Newspaper Group ("JPSN") into a wholly owned subsidiary of Scripps (the "JPSN Merger"), the former shareholders of the John P. Scripps Newspaper Group, including John P. Scripps and Paul K. Scripps, entered into a Shareholder Agreement with the Issuer in connection with the JPSN Merger. This agreement restricts to certain transferees the transfer of the Issuer's Common Voting Shares received by such shareholders pursuant to the JPSN Merger. These restrictions on transfer terminated upon the termination of the Trust.

Other Relationships

Four of the Reporting Persons, Ms. Scagliotti, Ms. Peirce, Anne M. La Dow and Paul K. Scripps, are directors of the Issuer and, as compensation for their Board service, have received options to purchase Class A Common Shares and restricted stock units that will convert into Class A Common Shares upon vesting. These Reporting Persons may receive annual awards of options or restricted stock units in the future in accordance with the Issuer's current Board compensation program.

Certain of the Reporting Persons act as co-trustees of trusts that beneficially own Class A Common Shares and Common Voting Shares, as is described in more detail on Appendix B.

Item 7. Material to Be Filed as Exhibits.

- 1. Power of Attorney and Joint Filing Agreement signed by each Reporting Person.
- 2. Scripps Family Agreement (incorporated herein by reference to the Scripps Networks Interactive, Inc. Registration Statement on Form 10 dated June 11, 2008).
- 5. Shareholder Agreement, dated March 14, 1986, between Scripps and each of the Shareholders named on Exhibit A thereto (incorporated herein by reference to the Issuer's Registration Statement on Form S-1 dated May 6, 1988).

APPENDIX B

The following table sets forth as of January 22, 2013: (i) the number of Common Voting Shares and Class A Common Shares beneficially owned by each Reporting Person, excluding Common Shares held by the Trust, (ii) the aggregate number of Common Voting Shares and Class A Common Shares that may be deemed to be beneficially owned by each Reporting Person, including the 10,693,333 Common Voting Shares held by the Trust, and (iii) the percentage of Common Voting Shares and Class A Common Shares that may be deemed to be beneficially owned by each Reporting Person. Except as otherwise noted in the table, each Reporting Person has (x) sole voting power (to the extent such shares are entitled to vote) with respect to the Class A Common Shares listed under column (i), (y) sole dispositive power with respect to the Common Voting Shares and Class A Common Shares listed under column (i), and (z) shared voting power with respect to the Common Voting Shares listed under column (ii).

Subject to the Scripps Family Agreement, each Common Voting Share is convertible at no cost and at any time into one Class A Common Share on a one-for-one basis. The aggregate number and percentage of Class A Common Shares (columns (ii) and (iii)) assumes the conversion of all Common Voting Shares to Class A Common Shares beneficially owned by the Reporting Person and/or Trust, as applicable. The percentages of Common Voting Shares and Class A Common Shares are based on 43,024,744 and 11,932,735 of the Issuer's Class A Common Shares and Common Voting Shares, respectively, outstanding as of October 31, 2012, as reported in the Issuer's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2012.
