Exhibit E: Response to FCC Form 312, Question A20

Upon consummation of the proposed transaction, U.S. Satellite Corporation, the licensee, will be an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of AB Acquisition. Specifically, U.S. Satellite Corporation will be a direct wholly owned subsidiary of ASC Media Services, Inc., a Utah corporation, which, in turn, is a wholly owned subsidiary of American Stores Company, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. American Stores Company, LLC is a wholly owned subsidiary of New Albertson’s, Inc., an Ohio corporation, which, in turn, will be a wholly owned subsidiary of NAI Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. NAI Holdings LLC is a wholly owned subsidiary of AB Acquisition.¹

AB Acquisition, the proposed transferee, is directly controlled by Cerberus Iceberg LLC, a Delaware limited liability company located at 875 Third Avenue, 11th Floor, New York, NY 10022. Pursuant to its limited liability company operating agreement, AB Acquisition is governed by a board of managers composed of eight members that have a combined ten votes, five of which are controlled by Cerberus Iceberg LLC. Specifically, Cerberus Iceberg LLC holds a 36.86% equity interest in the company, but pursuant to the operating agreement, controls AB Acquisition through its right to appoint three of the company’s board members, one of whom is entitled to three votes. The remaining equity interests in AB Acquisition are widely held by private investment funds, none of which has the right to appoint more than one member to the company’s board.²

Listed below are those entities holding direct or indirect voting and/or equity interests of 10 percent or more in Cerberus Iceberg LLC, the proposed transferee’s controlling entity. Each entity’s address, citizenship, and percentage of voting and/or equity interest is specified below. Other than as set forth below, no other individual or entity holds a direct or indirect interest of 10 percent or more in Cerberus Iceberg LLC.
