

Exhibit F

The instant stations are used in the operation of television stations serving local communities. The Commission has already approved the transfer of control of the television stations. Accordingly, the public interest would be served by grant of the instant application.