

Non-U.S. Satellites Providing Service in the U.S. (Response to Question 42a)

One or more of the earth stations for which authority to transfer control is sought have been previously authorized to transmit using specified non-U.S. satellites (many of which have also been added to the FCC's Ku-band Permitted List). No new showing under Section 25.137 is required in connection with this application.